RULES OF THE 2011 FESTIVAL

(PLEASE READ CAREFULLY)

1. All entries must be entirely the ORIGINAL, UNPUBLISHED WORK AND DESIGN of the artist. No copies of work taken from copyrighted photographs, paintings, drawing, prints, sculptures; no work from craft kits, no patterns, etc. If the work is not your own uniquely creative production, it may not be entered.
2. All pottery must be HAND FORMED OR WHEEL THROWN. No soft or unfired clay. If molds are used, the molds must be of the artist's original design.
3. TWO-DIMENSIONAL WORKS may not exceed a total exterior measurement of 120" including the frame, unless the Fine Arts Festival Board gives approval in advance.
4. All works that require hanging must be APPROPRIATELY PREPARED using a frame and standard picture hanging wire unless on a stretched canvas. If your work is not ready for hanging, Festival volunteers will not prepare it for you. SAWTOOTH HANGERS ARE NOT PERMITTED.
5. Acrylic, oil, watercolor, etc., must be THOROUGHLY DRY prior to submission.
6. Charcoal, oil or chalk pastel, etc. must have an appropriate PROTECTIVE COATING OR BE UNDER GLASS.
7. THREE-DIMENSIONAL WORKS may not exceed a measurement of 72" in any direction, unless the Fine Arts Festival Board gives approval in advance. Entrants must supply any bases required for sculpture.
8. Although the Fine Arts Festival Association will handle all entries with the utmost care, entrants place their work in the Festival Exhibit at their OWN RISK. Neither the Fine Arts Festival Association nor Rockingham Community College will be responsible for works entered.
9. All works are to remain on exhibit UNTIL THE EXHIBIT CLOSES. Failure to comply with this rule will result in the exhibitor being banned from the show for the NEXT THREE YEARS. NO EXCEPTIONS!
10. ALL ENTRIES NOT PICKED UP at the close of the exhibit, automatically become the property of the Fine Arts Festival Association and are subject to disposal or sale by the Fine Arts Festival Association at their annual auctions. NO EXCEPTIONS

COMMISSION:

A 25% commission will be taken on all works sold during the Festival exhibit.
